UPDATE — MOVING FORWARD

Though time flies, memories can still be treasured when captured in written words or photos. Having zoomed through the last few months due to many changes, events, and opportunities (plus the “tyranny of the urgent”), we would like to bring you up to date on what’s been happening and how close we are to re-opening Samaritan Inn Transition House.

This past October we raised around $5,000 during our “Raising the Roof — The Time IS now” Banquet. This evening was a blessing even though there were some audio issues. We have since been donated our own audio system to avoid these “glitches” in the future. (Romans 8:28)

We were BLESSED to have Father Al Esposito of Santa Maria del Mar Catholic Church as our keynote speaker. Not only did Father Al share a moving message of his own healing of past abuse and his ultimate call to share God’s love, he blessed us with a special conclusion to his presentation: at our request, Father Al shared one of his other anointed gifts by playing his violin! At this time, one could sense the peace and presence of God. It was, for me, a soul-stirring time of awe and reverence.

We are SO grateful to Father Al for agreeing to share his life and heart with us. This, too, is one who is truly making a

HOME SWEET HOME

I mentioned that we were going to update you on the progress of getting the house. All I can say is we are believing after the Luncheon info included here AND the Grand Haven Ladies Charity Tournament April 18th, that our April newsletter will have some exciting news.

(Note: you may want to save the date of May 6th)"

For a clear picture of what we do and how we are different, check out an interview done with a client on WAPN on Valentine's Day. You can find it on our website or stream it directly from WAPN.net
